

Special Section

Growth with Financial Stability and New Developmentalism

This special issue of the Brazilian Journal of Political Economy (additional to the four quarterly issues) was published in the framework and with the support of the Ford Foundation / Centre of Structuralist Development Economics of the São Paulo School of Economics of Getulio Vargas Foundation project, “Financial instability and overvaluation of the exchange rate in Latin America: analysis and policy recommendations”. This São Paulo based project is part of the broader Reforming Global Finance Project that Ford Foundation is sponsoring in several countries. In this section we publish (1) the original project, (2) the call for the first workshop, (3) the Ten Theses on New Developmentalism that were the main outcome of the first workshop, held in São Paulo, in May 24-25, 2010, and (4) the call for the second workshop held in São Paulo, in March 2011, and (5) the papers presented to the second workshop. The project will be closed with a conference to be held in São Paulo March 23-24, 2012.
